Carmen Island is the best place in Mexico for hunting South Baja Desert Bighorn Sheep, according to the SCI Record Book, Mexico Hunts has 6 of the top 10 trophies registered in this category. The numbers talk by themselves. With first class accommodation, Carmen Island is a true paradise for bow or rifle hunting.

Included: Boat and ground transportation to/from Loreto International Airport-Carmen Island; first class lodging, Mexican gourmet food & drinks; guides; exclusive use of the Island during the scheduled days (this means there will not be any other hunter during the clients stay); one non hunter companion; boat transportation during the hunt; caping and salt drying; after the hunt is finished, clients are welcome to stay to enjoy some fishing days, snorkeling and/or kayaking or just relaxing on the private beaches of Carmen Island during their scheduled days. Hunting license; Sheep Tag; CITES permit; Temporary Federal Gun Importation Permit; State and Federal Taxes and Conservation Fee.

This is an 8-day trip, with 6 full hunting days. Rifle and bow hunters.

This hunt is for a mature ram of 9-10 years old or more and age is the main criteria. We are taking sheep with scores in the 160 class, maybe low 170's, scores on this kind of sheep have ranged from 158 to 171 pts.
